

Comedy Saturday 23 March, 7.30pm £18.00	A Scottish Comedy Collective Sit back and be entertained as Graham Mackie, Chris Forbes, Cubby and Raymond Mearns guide you through a night of laughter and hilarity. Running time: 2h including two intervals Ages 18+
Made by Students Tuesday 26 - Thursday 28 March, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £12.00 / £10.00 / £8.00	University of St Andrews Gilbert and Sullivan Society present The Mike A. Do: The Dictator of St Andrews In this new retelling of Gilbert and Sullivan's classic The Mikado , The Mike A. Do finds our young lovers betrothed to undesirable partners and at risk of legal repercussions. Filled with star-crossed loves and set in a fictionalised St Andrews, this re-imagining is sure to breathe new life into this well-loved classic.
Talks and Events Wednesday 27 March, 6.30pm FREE but please book	Byre World: Poetry in translation – On Yellow Evenings Jordi Larios, a Catalan poet, translator, and a Professor of Spanish at the University of St Andrews, will be in conversation about the making of his latest book On Yellow Evenings , with Dominic Keown, Emeritus Professor of Catalan Studies at the University of Cambridge. Running time: 1h 30m
Film Thursday 28 March, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	Fisherman's Friends (12A) This gentle, sweet-natured comedy has warmth and likability, helped by big-hearted performances from a brilliant cast including Daniel Mays and Tuppence Middleton. Dir: Chris Foggin / 2019 / UK / 12A / 1h 52m
Made by Students Saturday 30 and Sunday 31 March, 7.30pm – £12.00 / Students £9.00	Dance Club present Into the Cosmos Venture out into the universe on a trip through time and space with the University of St Andrews Dance Club. Join them for an evening of dance of all kinds while gazing out into the stars and exploring the far reaches of space. Running time: 1h 45m including interval
Talks and Events Wednesday 3 April, 6.30pm FREE but please book	Byre World: Energised Ukraine – Art in Precarious Times During this talk and demonstration of art you are invited to look at the way Ukrainian artists have reflected across time on the country's vast energy landscapes. Running time: 1h 30m
Film Thursday 4 April, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00 / £4.00	Marcel the Shell with Shoes On (PG) Sweet, poignant, funny, and Oscar-nominated, this story about a tiny shell's unique perspective on life promises joy and love for grown-ups and children alike. Shown with subtitles. Dir: Dean Fleischer Camp / 2022 / US / PG / 1h 30m

Made by Students Thursday 4 April, 7.30pm £12.00 / Students £9.00	Dance Club present Blue Angels Gala 2024 Come watch the award-winning Blue Angels Dance Team perform their 2024 season pieces one last time, bidding farewell to future graduates and welcoming in a new year of Angels. Running time: 1h 45m including interval
Live Music Saturday 6 April, 2.00pm-4.00pm FREE	Jazz Works For lovers of jazz and all music that surrounds it, from the keenest and best musicians in town, courtesy of Jazz Works, the University's jazz society.
On Stage Saturday 6 April, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £15.00 / £12.00 / £10.00	Curious Seed present And the Birds Did Sing Inspired by the depth of feeling in one tiny moment of knowing that the world would never be the same again, And the Birds Did Sing is an intimate solo dance theatre work, performed with an evocative soundtrack, poetic text and ethereal set design. Running time: 1h 25m plus interval Ages 12+
On Screen Sunday 7 April, 2.00pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £15.00 / £10.00	National Theatre Live: Dear England (15) Joseph Fiennes plays Gareth Southgate in James Graham's gripping and dramatic examination of nation and game. Running time: 2h 40m including interval
Film Thursday 11 April, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00 / £4.00	The Little Mermaid (PG) The beloved story of Ariel is brought up to date with stunning performances from Halle Bailey, Melissa McCarthy, and Javier Bardem. Shown with subtitles. Dir: Rob Marshall / 2023 / US / PG / 2h 15m
Made by the Community Saturday 13 April, 2.00pm Pay What You Can £12.00 / £10.00 / £8.00	Friends of the Byre present Mamma Mia (PG) The long-standing community group Friends of the Byre present a screening of the 2008 hit musical film, Mamma Mia , transporting us to a Green Island where the romance and drama unfolds to those catchy ABBA tunes. Dir. Phyllida Lloyd / 2008 / US / PG / 1h 48m
Festival Friday 19 - Sunday 21 April Stay tuned for the Sands 2024 programme at sands-iff.com)	Sands: International Film Festival of St Andrews Returning for a third year, Sands International Film Festival brings audiences, filmmakers, renowned guests, and industry experts together for a weekend of film in the heart of St Andrews.

Film Thursday 25 April, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	Byre Film Favourites – Vote Now Take your pick from one of these stellar titles, which have all previously been screened at the Byre. Winning title to be announced at the beginning of April. Bohemian Rhapsody (12A) Dir: Bryan Singer / 2018 / UK, US / 12A / 2h 14m Last seen at the Byre: 11/07/2019 The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society (12A) Dir: Mike Newell / 2018 / UK, US, France / 12A / 2h 4m Last seen at the Byre: 09/05/2019 Sully (12A) Dir: Clint Eastwood / 2016 / US / 12A / 1h 36m Last seen at the Byre: 25/01/2018 Hidden Figures (PG) Dir: Theodore Melfi / 2017 / US / PG / 2h 7m Last seen at the Byre: 22/02/2018 Woman in Gold (12A) Dir: Simon Curtis / 2015 / UK, US, Germany, Austria / 12A / 1h 49m Last seen at the Byre: 23/02/2017 Cast your vote now at byretheatre.com
On Stage Thursday 25 April, 6.30pm Pay What You Can £15.00 / £12.00 / £10.00	The Avison Brothers present Godfather Death: A Grimm's Musical Based on a little-known Grimm's fairy tale, this musical tells the story of one poor boy's journey through life, with Death as his Godfather. Welcome to this darkly comic and gleefully macabre world – there are no Disney endings here... Running time: 1h 15m Ages 14+
Comedy Friday 26 April, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £18.00 / £16.00	Jack Docherty in David Bowie and Me: Parallel Lives The BAFTA-winning star of Scot Squad and cult classic Absolutely brings us his updated new comedy show, exploring how his love for David Bowie changed his life. Ages 16+ TBC
Live Music Saturday 27 April, 7.30pm £20.00 / £18.00	MacFloyd present All That is Now MacFloyd bring their new show All That Is Now to the Byre Theatre for 2024. It promises to be an unforgettable journey through the timeless music of Pink Floyd. Spanning five decades of classic songs with a great light and visual display. Running time: 2h 15m All Ages

Welcome

You can book for Byre performances, screenings, and events any time at byretheatre.com, by phone on 01334 475 000, or in person at the box office.

Box Office is open 10.00am-4.30pm Monday to Saturday, except when there is an evening event, when it remains open until after the performance starts. It is closed on Sundays, unless there is a performance, when box office opens two hours before the start time.

BrewCo at the Byre in the cafe bar on Level 1, is operating on reduced opening hours and is only open before and during the interval of select shows and events. Keep up to date with official opening times on the Byre website, byretheatre.com

Comedy

Families

Festival

Film

Health & Wellbeing

Live Music

Made by the Community

Made by Students

On Stage

Performance

Talks and Events

01334 475 000
byretheatre.com

On social media:
facebook.com/byretheatre
instagram.com/byretheatre

What's On at the Byre

At a glance guide January - April 2024

Find out more and book now
at byretheatre.com
or call 01334 475 000

Made by the Community Tuesday 16 January, 7.00pm £5.00	Fife Shakespeare Schools Festival Join us for an evening of Shakespeare as four Fife schools showcase their talents with abridged performances of four classic plays. Running time: 2h 20m including interval All Ages
On Screen Wednesday 17 January, 6.30pm Pay What You Can £7.00 / £5.00 / £3.00	The Axe Forgets, But the Tree Remembers Alberta Whittle's film is a multi-voiced portrayal of members of the Windrush Generation and their descendants with material sourced from the Hackney Archives. Followed by a post-show discussion. Shown with Subtitles. Running time: 1h 30m Ages 12+
Film Thursday 18 January, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	Oppenheimer (15) Cillian Murphy is J. Robert Oppenheimer, the talented physicist who spearheaded the Manhattan Project in Christopher Nolan's acclaimed biopic. Dir: Christopher Nolan / 2022 / US, UK / 15 / 3h
Live Music Saturday 20 January, 2.00pm-4.00pm	Jazz Works For lovers of jazz and all music that surrounds it, from the keenest and best musicians in town, courtesy of Jazz Works, the University's jazz society.
Live Music Saturday 20 January, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £18.00 / £16.00 / £14.00	Kings of the Blues The Main Street Blues Band returns to the Byre with their stunning electric blues tribute to the masters, BB King, Albert King, and Freddy King. As well as hearing great tunes, you will also learn about the life and time of these three iconic bluesmen. Running time: 2h including interval Ages 12+
Made by Students Sunday 21 - Sunday 28 January	Freshers Drama Festival Everyone is welcome to come along and discover the freshest of student voices at the Barron, based in the LL Studio at the Byre. Check for titles, dates and times at byretheatre.com nearer the time.
Made by Students Tuesday 30 and Wednesday 31 January, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £12.00 / £10.00 / £8.00	Mermaids Performing Arts Fund present Dragon Fever Mermaids celebrate new writing with Albert Suriñach I Campos' Dragon slaying quest. Nine strangers embark on an adventure which quickly turns into a mind-bending murder mystery. Running time: 2h 15m including interval Ages 13+

Health and Wellbeing Tuesdays 30 January - 19 March, 2.00pm-4.00pm FREE	Memory Makers Fife Joyful, weekly sessions for people living with dementia and their carers. Please contact ashley@communityartsproject.co.uk or call the Byre on 01334 475000 for more information.
Talks and Events Wednesday 31 January, 6.30pm FREE but please book	Byre World: Kaili Blues (Cert 12 TBC) This screening of the 2015 film Kaili Blues is followed by a discussion between Dr Keru Cai and a special guest to illuminate aspects of Bi Gan's cinematography in portraying a small Chinese city and its inhabitants. Shown in Mandarin, with English subtitles. Running time: 1h 53m followed by a discussion
Film Thursday 1 February, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	Allelujah (12A) Adapted from Alan Bennett's play, directed by Richard Eyre and starring Dame Judi Dench, Jennifer Saunders and Derek Jacobi, this funny and moving story is a love letter to the NHS and the resilience of the people who need it the most. Shown with subtitles. Dir: Richard Eyre / 2022 / UK / 12A / 1h 39m
Live Music Saturday 3 February, 2.00pm-4.00pm FREE	Jazz Works For lovers of jazz and all music that surrounds it, from the keenest and best musicians in town, courtesy of Jazz Works, the University's jazz society.
Live Music Saturday 3 February, 7.00pm £20.00	Celtic Fiddle Festival Coming together to celebrate the violin in all of its globe-trotting variations, the Celtic Fiddle Festival present a night of spontaneous humour, dazzling energy and breathtaking performances. Running time: 2h Ages 14+
On Screen Sunday 4 February, 2.00pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £15.00 / £10.00	National Theatre Live: Skylight (15) Returning to the big screen after nearly ten years, Bill Nighy features in this critically acclaimed revival of David Hare's play, a 'moving picture of politics and love' (The Guardian). Running time: 2h 43m including interval Ages 15+
Talks and Events Wednesday 7 February, 6.30pm FREE but please book	Byre World: Stories in migration – Politics, Gender and Literature in the UK Led by Dr Liliana Chávez-Díaz (University of St Andrews) and Dr Dunia Gras (University of Barcelona), this round table invites the audience to use the lens of storytelling to discover more about transnational identities and linguistic diversity in the pre and post Brexit context. Running time: 1h

Film Thursday 8 February, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	Loch Ness: They Created a Monster (12A) This feature-length documentary film from multi award-winning Director John MacLavery tells the story you've never heard from Loch Ness – a monstrous tale of fake photos, international rivalry, seedy sex and petrol bombs – all told with newly discovered archive and incredible testimony. Shown with subtitles. Dir: John MacLavery / 2023 / UK / 12A / 1h 30m
On Stage Thursday 8 February, 6.30pm Pay What You Can £15.00 / £12.00 / £10.00	AI Seed Productions presents Plinth Renowned visual theatre maker AI Seed presents his latest striking work Plinth , which examines the role and re-appraisal of statues. Running time: 50m Ages 14+
On Screen Friday 9 February, 7.15pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £15.00 / £10.00	Royal Opera House: Manon (12A) Torn between her desire of a life of splendour and riches and her devotion to her true love Des Grieux, the feckless and capricious Manon pays the ultimate price. Running time: 3h 15m including two intervals
Made by Students Saturday 10 February, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	St Andrews Green Film Festival present EO (15) This stunning, Academy Award nominated, film follows a donkey who encounters on his journeys good and bad people, experiences joy and pain, exploring a vision of modern Europe through his eyes. Shown with subtitles. Dir: Jerzy Skolimowski / 2022 / Poland, Italy, UK / 15 / 1h 28m Followed by a post-show discussion – guest TBC
Made by Community Tuesday 13 - Saturday 17 February, 7.00pm and Saturday 17 February, 2.00pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £18.00 / £16.00	St Andrews Musical Society present The Addams Family The wonderful St Andrews Musical Society (SAMS) brings everyone's favourite kooky family to the Byre in this spectacular musical comedy from the writers of multi award-winning hit musical Jersey Boys . Running time: 2h 30m including interval Ages 8+
Talks and Events Wednesday 14 February, 6.30pm FREE but please book	Byre World: When There's Love Inside Join senior lecturer of the School of Modern Languages, Orhan Elmaz this Valentine's Day for a literary conversation about everything the heart may (or may not!) desire in the collection of Middle Eastern folktales, One Thousand and One Nights . Running time: 1h 30m

Film Thursday 15 February, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	What's Love Got to Do with It? (12A) Lily James stars as Zoe, a successful documentary filmmaker on the hunt for her next project. When her childhood friend Kaz (Shazad Latif) announces that he is starting the arranged marriage process, she decides to use it as the inspiration for her new film. Shown with subtitles. Dir: Shekhar Kapur / 2022 / UK / 12A / 1h 49m
Made by Students Tuesday 20 - Wednesday 21 February, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £12.00 / £10.00 / £8.00	Mermaids Performing Arts Fund present Doctor Faustus In Mermaids' retelling of Christopher Marlowe's tragedy, Doctor Faustus revels in his rewards after bargaining with the devil – but Lucifer's shadow always looms. Running time: 2h 15m including interval Ages 17+
Talks and Events Wednesday 21 February, 5.30pm FREE but please book	Chaplain's Conversations A Senior Lecturer in the Department of Russian, Dr Emily Finer, in conversation with the Chaplain, Donald MacEwan, explores her path to the university, what inspires her in her research and her thoughts about the future of education. Running time: 1h
On Stage Friday 23 February, 7.00pm Pay What You Can £15.00 / £12.00 / £10.00	Tortoise in a Nutshell and Figurteatret i Nordland present Ragnarok Enter a bold, haunting, and multisensory world, in this multi award-winning production, populated by scores of hand-crafted clay figures and an atmospheric immersive soundtrack. Running time: 1h 10m, followed by a 30m post-show discussion Ages 12+
Live Music Saturday 24 February, 7.30pm £24.00	Buddy Holly and the Cricketers Celebrating the show's 31st year on the road, Buddy Holly and the Cricketers bring us a night of infectious energy and signature 1950's rockabilly sounds. Running time: 2h 20m including interval All Ages
On Screen Sunday 25 February, 2.00pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £15.00 / £10.00	National Theatre Live: Vanya (15) Hopes, dreams, and regrets are thrust into sharp focus in Simon Stephens' one-man adaptation of Chekhov's Uncle Vanya , starring Andrew Scott. Running time: 1h 50m including interval Ages 15+
On Stage Wednesday 28 - Friday 1 March, 7.00pm Pay What You Can £12.00 / £10.00 / £8.00	St Leonards: The Crucible The talented students of St Leonards bring the dread and horror in Arthur Miller's 1953 gripping tragedy to life. Watch fear spread in Salem as a witch hunt begins and truth is put on trial. 2h 50m including interval Ages 10+

Film Thursday 29 February, 10.30am Pay What You Can £8.00 / £6.00	Tish (15) A moving portrait of social documentary photographer and trailblazer Tish Murtha, who dedicated her life to documenting the lives of working-class communities in North East England. Shown with subtitles. Dir: Paul Sng / 2023 / UK / 15 / 1h 30m
Live Music Saturday 2 March, 2.00pm-4.00pm FREE	Jazz Works For lovers of jazz and all music that surrounds it, from the keenest and best musicians in town, courtesy of Jazz Works, the University's jazz society.
Live Music Saturday 2 March, 7.30pm Pay What You Can £20.00 / £18.00 / £16.00	A Foreigners Journey Here to fill a rock shaped gap in the UK, A Foreigners Journey brings together the best and most iconic songs from two legendary bands, Foreigner and Journey. Expect a powerful night of live music from this award-winning tribute band. Running time: 2h 20m including interval All ages
Festival Friday 8 March - Sunday 10 March Find the full programme byretheatre.com and stanzapoetry.org	StAnza 2024 The Saboteur Award-winning poetry festival returns to St Andrews, promising a jam-packed weekend of spectacular performances, workshops, exhibitions, and open mic events. Follow @stanzapoetry for the latest updates.
Made by Students Wednesday 13 - Wednesday 20 March Various times and prices	On the Rocks Feel the vibe at this entirely student-run arts festival. Check the website nearer the time for the full line-up of performances, talks and workshops, and more...
On Stage Thursday 21 March, 6.30pm £18.00 / Under 26s £6.00	Scottish Opera presents Opera Highlights Exploring the highs and lows of love in opera, a troupe of talented singers, including Scottish Opera's Emerging Artists, join us for a vibrant piano-accompanied production. Running time: 1h 45m including interval Ages 8+
Made by Students Saturday 23 March, 11.00am-3.00pm including an interval for lunch – £18.00 with post event networking / £14.00 conference only	TEDx University of St Andrews 2024 In the spirit of ideas worth spreading, TEDx is a programme of local self-organised events that bring people together to share a TED-like experience. This conference showcases a range of live speakers who seek to uncover new ideas and to share the latest research, aiming to spark deep discussion and connection. Followed by networking until 4.00pm.